

WEMBURY LOCAL HISTORY SOCIETY

www.wemburyhistory.org.uk

Programme for 2027

- January 21 Napoleon' s visit to Plymouth Sound in 1815.

Clive Charlton – retired Geography Lecturer and now Local Historian
- February 18 Daughters of Devon - The wives, sisters, daughters and mothers who played their part during the tumultuous Tudor years.

Rosemary Griggs – author, researcher, seamstress and popular West Country speaker
- March 18 Amy Cross; vegetarian poultry farmer of Elburton

Deborah Lister – Plymouth & Devon Historian/Researcher
- April 15 St Andrews Church windows, accompanied by songs

Silvinton – Plymouth based Folk Music Duo
- May 20 One Woman's War – World War II through the eyes of war correspondent Mea Allan.

Felicity Goodall - writer and broadcaster
- Summer break Visits to be announced
- September 16 120 years of farming in East Prawle

Roger Tucker - farmer
- October 21 Arthur Clamp, Local Historian; publisher of around 150 books

Steve Gibson – Grandson of Arthur Clamp
A selection of Arthur's books will be available to purchase at discounted prices.
- November 18 Plymouth: a snapshot of the '60s

Chris Robinson MBE - Chairman of the Plymouth Barbican Trust, and President of the Old Plymouth Society